Clarification of News Report

We write in connection with your letter to Bloomberry Resorts Corporation (the "Corporation") dated 6 June 2018 seeking clarification and/or confirmation relating to the news article entitled "Solaire casino opens in QC in 2022" posted on 6 June 2018 in philstar.com. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — Bloomberry Resorts Corp., the owner and operator of the Solaire Resort & Casino and Jeju Sun Hotel & Casino in Korea, plans to open its Quezon City casino by early 2022.

In his report during the company's annual stockholders meeting yesterday, Bloomberry chairman and chief executive officer Enrique Razon said the construction of the Quezon City casino would commence by mid-2019, while the masterplan is targeted for completion by January next year.

'This is part of our strategy to capture the base mass segment in the north,' he said.

The Quezon City casino resort would carry the same Solaire brand but would be taller because the lot area in Vertis North is smaller compared to the one in Parañaque.

'It's a smaller property so it will be high rise. The gaming space will probably be the same, but not the same layout,' Razon also said.

The company confirms the above-quoted statements made by Mr. Razon.
